

Watermelon Summer Salad

By: Chris Busby, KW-Realtor®, Culinary Artist, Potter

INGREDIENTS/SHOPPING LIST

6 cups of large diced watermelon.
1 bunch of mint, leaves picked and sliced thin.
(chiffinade)
Juice and zest from one lime
One serrano pepper, sliced into coins.
Four ounces of feta cheese crumbled.

SPECIAL NOTE

The biggest takeaway from making this salad is you can't make it ahead of time. The salt from the feta will draw all the moisture from the watermelon and the result is just sad....

However you can assemble this salad and let it sit. Just add the feta cheese right before you eat.

DIRECTIONS

This salad is simple and fresh. As soon as you assemble the ingredients it is ready to eat. It is sweet and refreshing. I pull this out of my back pocket every now and again, and it never disappoints.

Hello, I am Chris Busby, a Realtor® right here in your neighborhood. In addition to real estate, I have a culinary background and enjoy creating pottery in my free time. Please keep me in mind if you or someone close to you is looking for a Realtor® in the future. In the meantime, I would like to share another of my favorite recipes with you. This one is a show stopper!

Why I love this recipe

I am sure that I am not the person who first created this salad, but I am the first person I know to add serrano peppers. This is one of my favorite summer side salads. It's sweet, spicy, sour, salty and refreshing.
